76 Drawing Realistic Textures in Pencil 2 Render the Grain Use a B charcoal pencil to make short vertical strokes for the grain. Taper the lines by using more pressure at the beginning of the stroke than at the end. This produces both the hard edge of the grain and a soft feathered edge. Then, lightly blend the entire wood surface with felt.

When drawing realistic texture, sit and examine the texture that you are trying to capture. You want to get the tactile sense of what that texture feels like and then translate that feeling through the graphite or the charcoal pencil onto the drawing paper. That requires very close observation to determine what makes each texture unique.
