For three months in the spring of 1994, the African nation of Rwanda descended into one of the most vicious and bloody genocides the world has ever seen. Immaculée Ilibagiza, a young university student, miraculously survived the savage killing spree that left most of her family, friends, and a million of her fellow citizens dead. Immaculée's remarkable story of survival was documented in her first book, Left to Tell: Discovering God Amidst the Rwandan Holocaust. In Led By Faith, Immaculée takes us with her as her remarkable journey continues. Through her simple and eloquent voice, we experience her hardships and heartache as she struggles to survive and to find meaning and purpose in the aftermath of the holocaust. It is the story of a naïve and vulnerable young woman, orphaned and alone, navigating through a bleak and dangerously hostile world with only an abiding faith in God to guide and protect her. Immaculée fends off sinister new predators, seeks out and comforts scores of children orphaned by the genocide, and searches for love and companionship in a land where hatred still flourishes. Then, fearing again for her safety as Rwanda's war-crime trials begin, Immaculée flees to America to begin a new chapter of her life as a refugee and immigrant—a stranger in a strange land. With the same courage and faith in God that led her through the darkness of genocide, Immaculée discovers a new life that was beyond her wildest dreams as a small girl in a tiny village in one of Africa's poorest countries. It is in the United States, her adopted country, where Immaculée can finally look back at all that has happened to her and truly understand why God spared her life . . . so that she would be left to tell her story to the world.

Ilibagiza, a young university student, miraculously survived the savage killing spree in Rwanda that left most of her family and friends, and more than a million of her fellow citizens, dead. As hundreds of killers hunted for her, she formed a profound and transforming relationship with God that transcended the bloodshed and butchery.

In this book, we have hand-picked the most sophisticated, unanticipated, absorbing (if not at times crackpot!), original and musing book reviews of "Led By Faith: Rising from the Ashes of the Rwandan Genocide." Don't say we didn't warn you: these reviews are known to shock with their unconventionality or intimacy. Some may be startled by their biting sincerity; others may be spellbound by their unbridled flights of fantasy. Don't buy this book if: 1. You don't have nerves of steel. 2. You expect to get pregnant in the next five minutes. 3. You've heard it all.

These Stations of the Cross were revised by Immaculee Ilibagiza and include fourteen great lessons Jesus teaches us through His cross on how to face our own struggles. While praying through these Stations, you will discover that there is no better way to love Christ than by taking the time to appreciate the suffering Jesus went through during His Life, especially during His Sorrowful Passion. By praying with Him through His passion, you console Him in the suffering He and His mother endured for us.

Immaculee Ilibagiza grew up in a country she loved, surrounded by a family she cherished. But in 1994 her idyllic world was ripped apart as Rwanda descended into a bloody genocide. Immaculee's family was brutally murdered during a killing spree that lasted three months and claimed the lives of nearly a million Rwandans. Incredibly, Immaculee survived the slaughter. For 91 days, she and seven other women huddled silently together in the cramped bathroom of a local pastor while hundreds of machete-wielding killers hunted for them. It was during those endless hours of unspeakable terror that Immaculee discovered the power of prayer, eventually shedding her fear of death and forging a profound and lasting relationship with God. She emerged from her bathroom hideout having discovered the meaning of truly unconditional love—a love so strong she was able seek out and forgive her family's killers. The triumphant story of this remarkable young woman's journey through the darkness of genocide will inspire anyone whose life has been touched by fear, suffering, and loss.

The circumstances surrounding COVID-19 brought about an unprecedented change in people's lives on a scale as never before, at least in modern history. Lockdown, protection of the vulnerable, protection of self, poor and mixed government advice and evaluation, vested interests - all are part of the picture that has enveloped us and we have become since early 2020. This book is not the place to get into the rights and wrongs of government, corporate or global management of the crisis. But it is the place to go into how people of many faiths, and none, have responded to the crisis with the goodness of their hearts, inspired by their different spiritual awareness - and by doing so, rising above the crisis to make something positive from it. As The European Times News put it: "It is the most comprehensive and well illustrated, yet brief collection of evidenced facts of what People of Faith DO in times of need".

Through this booklet, Immaculee invites you to pray the rosary of the Seven Sorrows given by Our Lady to the visionary, Marie Claire. Included in this prayer booklet are the meditations and prayers given by the "Mother of the Word" on each Sorrow. Our Blessed Mother is asking for this prayer, which has been in the Church since the 13th century, to be prayed once again by the faithful. Our Lady of Kibeho stated, "If you say the Rosary of the Seven Sorrows and meditate on it well, you will find the strength you need to repent of your sins and convert your heart. Pray my Seven Sorrows to find repentance."

Designed for either personal or group study, this volume explores twelve exceptionally relevant topics (based in 1Thessalonians) that relate to "Rising above Struggle, Walking in Hope." These include "Finding Direction, Longing and Hope, Praying with Elation, The Quiet Life, Meeting the Lord," and several more. This is volume two (of two) that raises a simple question: What if you could sit down with the apostle Paul in a live, one-on-one conversation? Would it make a difference for how you read the Bible?

Or for how you live your life? This series grew out of the author's own frustration as a Bible reader and Bible teacher with the sheer number of Christians who merely want to skim the surface. Like a rock skipping across the water, that's how a lot of people read the Bible, touching down only here and there and then sputtering to a stop. "Devotional" approaches (and far too much preaching) encourage this haphazard use of the Bible. This book pursues a different path. How different? Once you get past these introductory pages, once you arrive at "the Conversations," every page is written as if by Paul himself, as if he is sitting across from you in a personal conversation. This series was developed over several years in numerous live groups. Volumes include: Vol 1: What Really Matters? Vol 2: Rising above Struggle, Walking in Hope Each volume also has a PROBE Journal, and there is a Primer for Group Leaders.
