~~Mistakes were made, by them. Never mind that I raised hell about those lessons or stubbornly refused to take advantage of them. By far, the most important distortions and confabulations of memory are those that serve to justify and explain our own lives. Memories create our stories, but our stories also create our memories.~~

~~Mistakes Were Made (But Not by Me): Carol Tavris, Elliot ...~~

~~"Mistakes were made" is an expression that is commonly used as a rhetorical device, whereby a speaker acknowledges that a situation was handled poorly or inappropriately but seeks to evade any direct admission or accusation of responsibility by not specifying the person who made the mistakes. The acknowledgement of "mistakes" is framed in an abstract sense, with no direct reference to who made the mistakes. A less evasive construction might be along the lines of "I made mistakes" or "John Doe ma~~
