Interview with Pamela Allen | Christchurch City Libraries

Using a trick from classic fairytales, Pamela Allen sticks to the rule of three: first one little bird comes to eat the crumbs; next two little birds, then a magnificent big blue bird. OPPONENT. Who is the opponent in this story? It's a bit tricky to work out, but not if we start from the idea that in children's books featuring animals, the animal and child character very often meld into one.
