A Compendium of Essays on Alternative Therapy is aimed at both conventional and alternate therapy practitioners, besides serving as an educational tool for students and lay persons on the progress made in the field. While this resource is not all-inclusive, it does reflect the current theories from different international experts in the field. This will hopefully stimulate more research initiatives, funding, and critical insight in the already increasing demand for alternate therapies that has been evidenced worldwide.

In this work, written in collaboration with A. U. Ramakrishnan, Catherine R. Coulter draws on her well-known writing and organizational skills as well as her profound knowledge of homœopathy, to describe and interpret the treatment of cancer by the Ramakrishnan Method. The book includes 126 cases, covering twenty-five types of cancer, presented in a lucid format that illustrates every point raised. Coulter's careful documentation shows how homœopathy has been used successfully in treatment of cancer, either alone or in conjunction with conventional Western procedures.
