"You Never Give Me Your Money" is a song by the English rock band the Beatles. It was written by Paul McCartney and documented the financial and personal difficulties facing the band. The song is the first part of the medley on side two of their 1969 album Abbey Road and was recorded in stages between May and August that year. The song was the first one to be recorded for the medley, which was conceived by McCartney and producer George Martin as a finale for the Beatles' career. The backing trac

You never give me your money, You only give me your funny paper, And in the middle of negotiations, you break down. I never give you my number, I only give you my situation, And in the middle of investigation, I break down. Out of college, money spent, See no future, pay no rent, All the money's gone, nowhere to go.
